

Relative Clauses: Quiz

1. A relative clause is one type of	Fill	Fill in the blanks.
and a(n) with optional and 3. Relative clauses work as a(n) in the sentence. 4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought.	1.	A relative clause is one type	e of		clause.
3. Relative clauses work as a(n) in the sentence. 4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought. who whom whose which that or which 5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again. who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	2.	Relative clauses begin with	a(n)		and contain a(n)
3. Relative clauses work as a(n) in the sentence. 4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought.		and a(n) _	with	optional	and
4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought. who whom whose which that or which 5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again. who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard who whom whose which that or which 5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again. who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	Circ	le the correct relative pronoun fo	or the sentence.
4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought. who whom whose which that or which 5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again. who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	3.	Relative clauses work as a(r	า)	in the sent	ence.
5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again. who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	4.	Debbie cannot afford the dr	ess she bough	t.
who whom whose which that or which 6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard		who whom	whose	which tha	t or which
6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years. who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. ———————————————————————————————————	5.	Debbie, often spends t	too much money on	clothes, is going	g to the mall again.
who whom whose which that or which 7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard
7. The dress, is completely covered in lace, costs $55. who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	6.	My sister is a friend of Debb who whom whose which that or which Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard		who whom	whose	which tha	t or which
Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 10. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	7.	The dress, is complete	ely covered in lace, o	costs $55.
8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. 9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard		who whom	whose	which tha	t or which
9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section. 10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard
10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	8.	She is committed to the pa	th which she has cho	osen.
10. A teacher whose room has a projector and screen is holding the meeting today. 11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	0	The how office has tickets the	ant are in the right s	ida af tha laga s	action
11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	9.	The box office has tickets ti	iat are in the right's	ide of the loge s	ection.
11. The city where her grandparents retired is in southern Florida. Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	10	A teacher whose room has	a projector and scre	een is holding th	e meeting today.
Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard					C ,
Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard	11	The city where her grandpa	arents retired is in so	outhern Florida.
why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. 12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard
	•
	12. Brad needs $85 to buy the skateboard
13. The dentist does not see patients on Friday.
	13	The dentist		does no	t see patients on Friday.

Relative Clauses: Quiz

Fill in the blanks

1.	A relative clau	se is one type of	DEPENDI	ENT	_ clause.
2.	Relative clause	es begin with a	RELATI	VE PRONOUN	J	_ and contains a SUBJECT	andVE	RBwith c	ptional	COMPLEMENTS	and
	MODIFIER	S .
3.		 es work as a(n)	ADJECTIV	'E in the s	sentence.
		ative pronoun for the
		t afford the dress		ght.
	who			which	that or which
5.	Debbie,	often spends too	much money	on clothes, is	going to the mall	again.
	who	whom	whose	which	that or which
6.	My sister is a f	riend of Debbie, _	I have kr	nown for five	years.
	who	(whom)	whose	which	that or which
7.	The dress,	is completely c	overed in lace	e, costs $55.
	who	whom	whose (which	that or which
Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. 8. She is committed to the path which she has chosen. WHICH SHE HAS CHOSEN
9.	9. The box office has tickets that are in the right side of the loge section.
	T I	HAT ARE ON THE I	RIGHT SIDE O	F THE LOGE S	ECTION
10		ose room has a pr SE ROOM HAS A I			ing the meeting to	day.
11	•	e her grandparen HERE HER GRAND			orida.
					e sentence. On the li
12	. Brad needs $8	85 to buy the skat	eboard	THAT HE WAN	ITS
	NO COMMAS BEO	CAUSE THE CLAUSE I	S NECESSARY TO	D IDENTIFY THE	SKATEBOARD
13	. The dentist	,WHO GRADUA	TED FROM YA	LE, do	es not see patient	s on Friday.
	COMMAS BECAL	JSE THE CLAUSE IS U	NNFCESSARY A	DDFD INFORMA	ATION ABOUT THE DE	NTIST

Relative Clauses: Quiz

Scaffolding Suggestions

Fill in the blanks. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTION—Provide a word bank.

	relative pronoun	dependent	subject	adjective
	complements	modifiers	verb
Circle	Circle the correct relative pronoun for the sentence. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTION—Give hints.
4. C	4. Debbie cannot afford the dress she bought.
	(necessary to identify which dress)
5. D	5. Debbie, often spends too much money on clothes, is going to the mall again.
	(not necessary to identify the PERSON, Debbie)
6. N	6. My sister is a friend of Debbie, I have known for five years.
(not necessary to identify the person, Debbie, not the subject of the clause)
7. Tł	ne dress, is complete	ely covered in lace,	costs $55.
	(not necessary to identify which dress)
Write the relative clause in each sentence on the line. Write NONE if the sentence does not contain a relative clause. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTION—Give hints.
8. 3	She is committed to the pa	th which she has cl	hosen.
	begins with which			_
9.	The box office has tickets th	nat are in the right	side of the lo	oge section.
	begins with that
10.	A teacher whose room has	a projector and sc	reen is holdi	ng the meeting today.
	begins with whose
11.	The city where her grandpa	arents retired is in	southern Flo	rida.
	begins with where
Write a relative clause and add any needed punctuation to complete the sentence. On the line below, explain why you added or did not add commas to separate the relative clause. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTION—Give first word and punctuation.
12.	Brad needs $85 to buy the	skateboard that		·
	necessary to identify whi	ich skateboard cos	ts $85
13. The dentist, _who, does not see patients on Friday.
person with added unnecessary information								